Jr. Kindergarten Operating Contract

- Upon receipt of the registration package and the accompanying $200 deposit, Powell River Christian School will schedule and hold a meeting with the parents or guardians and child prior to the approval of the application.
- Registration forms are required to be completed upon the child's first day of Jr. Kindergarten and be kept current throughout the year. These forms include: Record of Immunization, Birth Certificate, all emergency contact information, as well as all permission forms to be signed and dated.
- The child will only be accepted and released in the presence of the teacher. Please sign your child in and out each day.
- The child will only be released to a person who is authorized to pick up as detailed on the registration form, unless proper written notification is given. Please ensure that the note is signed and dated by the parent and the person picking up is required to have proper picture ID with them.
- The parent or guardian agrees to not expose other children to illness or any communicable disease as outlined in our policies in this handbook.
- The parent or guardian will respect the hours their child is to attend Jr. Kindergarten. Continued failure to abide with designated times will result in withdrawal of services by this Jr. Kindergarten.
- Payment will be made in the form of ten post-dated cheques.
- The parent or guardian will give one month's written notice of withdrawal of their child or pay one month's fee in lieu of notice.
- The preschool reserves the right to give the parent or guardian one month's written notice to have their child find an alternate preschool.
- Failure to disclose any early years intervention services or extra support your child may require could impact the quality of service your child is able to receive in this group setting. Failure to disclose or the inability of PRCS to access external support services may result in termination of enrollment. In this case one month's notice will be given.
